

Saskatchewan Agility Association Presents a

Gamblers Workshop with Kimberley Anderson

Saturday, October 22, 2011
Aberdeen Equestrian Centre

Kim is well known to the local and national agility community. To add to her many outstanding achievements, Kim will be competing at the 2011 World Agility Open Championships with her team mate, Fia. We are VERY fortunate to have a person of her level of expertise lead this workshop.

Kim is an AAC Masters level judge as well as CARO, CKC Rally O and CKC Agility Judge. She has competed in Agility for about 20 years (AAC, NADAC, USDAA) and enjoys a variety of other sports with her dogs including Flyball, Herding, Obedience and Rally O. Kim and her dogs have achieved three AAC National Championships, several Regional Championships and has stood on the AAC National podium every year since inception of the games. She was the first national competitor to achieve an AAC Lifetime Award of Excellence. Kim lives close to Prince Albert with her husband, 4 year-old son, 7 Border Collies, 1 Jack Russell Terrier, a cat and 2 Quarter Horses.

Workshop Details
